

Summative Assessment: Comparative Analysis Prompt

Compose a comparative analysis of Shakespeare's The Tempest and "A Tempest" by Aimé Césaire. How is Césaire responding to Shakespeare? Why is he responding to Shakespeare?

Keep the following assessment criteria in mind as you plan, compose, and edit/revise your response:

	2	1	0
Claim	Precise, thoughtful claim	Reasonable claim	Missing claim or inaccurate claim
Evidence	Uses well-chosen textual evidence consistently throughout the piece	Uses some relevant textual evidence to support ideas	Missing textual evidence, or relies solely on irrelevant textual evidence
Analysis	Details are thoroughly analyzed; evidence of reflection; student makes insights	There is some analysis of details and some evidence of reflection	Missing analysis
Conventions	Few errors in writing that do not disrupt readability	Errors in writing may disrupt readability; may contain bullet points or incomplete sentences	Response is illegible